

“A blueprint on how leaders became successful following the path of honor and integrity.”

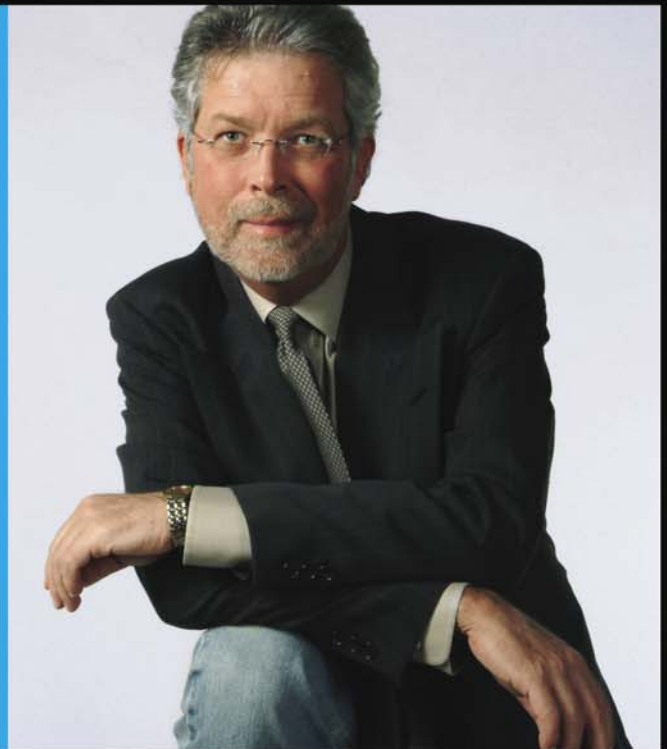

-President Gerald Ford

ON MY HONOR, I WILL: Proven Principles for Integrity-Driven® Leadership

What if you could have a blueprint for becoming the leader you always wanted to be ... one who achieves results and inspires trust?

What if that blueprint had been field-tested by hundreds of thousands of leaders from all walks of life?

Here's the news – the blueprint exists. Forty simple words will transform you into an integrity-driven leader in your business and your life.

The presentation

This content-rich session lays out the blueprint for how integrity-driven leaders succeed. Participants will learn:

- ✓ The forty simple words that lead you to success as a leader
- ✓ How integrity-driven leaders follow their core when times are tough
- ✓ How to become the leader who inspires trust, respect, commitment, and results from others

Randy Pennington

A 20-year business performance veteran and an expert in helping leaders and their organizations build a culture focused on results, act with integrity, and make change work.

For information, contact:
Michele Lucia
972.899.3411
michele@adlassociates.com